Code of Conduct and Guidelines for MINORS who Volunteer

NOTE: These guidelines are to be followed by teens (ages 14 through 17).

Acknowledgment

As a ministry volunteer, I want parents and others to feel comfortable and confident with me. Therefore, I will commit to creating the best possible environment for children and youth to grow up in by following the guidelines for conduct listed below. I understand this will better protect both the volunteer, and those under their care.

My Commitment to Volunteer Ministry

1. I will not allow myself to be in a position of supervising a child or group of children without adult supervision. If so, I will seek an adult immediately.
2. If I find myself in a situation where there are no adults present, UNDER NO CIRCUMSTANCES will I allow myself to be alone with one child. This protects me as well as the child from possible accusations.
3. I will ask a child's permission before physically touching him/her anywhere, even when responding to an injury or problem. This is especially true for any areas that would normally be covered by a T-shirt and/or shorts. If an injury is within this area, care is only provided by an adult.
4. I will refrain from physical and verbal attacks and corporal punishment which are inappropriate behaviors and should never be used as discipline. I will report any misbehavior I observe to the adults in charge of supervision.
5. I will affirm other children with appropriate touching by keeping hugs brief and "shoulder-to-shoulder" or "side-to-side." I will always keep hands at (not below) the shoulder level. For small children who like to sit on laps, I will encourage them to sit next to me.
6. I will NOT take children to the restroom unless under the supervision of another adult.
7. I will remind the adults in supervision to keep all activities with children within visible areas. (i.e. Keep the classroom door open.)
8. I will not seek private conversations with children I am helping. All interactions will be within the view of an adult.
9. If I become aware of any behavior by another individual which seems abusive or inappropriate towards children, I will report that behavior to an adult or church pastor.
10. I will cooperate and follow these guidelines and act in good faith for the welfare of the people involved.
11. I will cooperate with church leadership in volunteering with children and youth ministries by being a volunteer who is loving, kind, firm, and always a respectable person. Working with children and youth is not only a privilege; it is also a serious responsibility that must be approached with utmost care.
